Thanks guys. This all sounds good. Sue, Mike and I can talk about when to meet on Thursday when we see each other on Wednesday at the ECC meeting. After that meeting I am going to head to the Edison Neighborhood meeting as Mick Warner is going to be there. Still looking for a place to watch the games on Wednesday and Thursday night (hoping we get to game 5).

Michael (and others) -

Since Sue and Mike are attending the ECC meeting, I will beg out of that meeting. I will be at the Hispanic American Council meeting at 6:00 PM, however. If you want to get together Thursday, I have some time in the afternoon. I have heard nothing from Peter Dickow from Senator Peters office about a tour so I'm thinking there won't be one.

See you Thursday.

Michael,

I have not scheduled anything for Thursday yet. Both Sue and I will be attending the ECC meeting on Wednesday, so we might have some time prior to or after the meeting. However, it appears that Sue might have an hour or so right after lunch on Thursday so I'll see if she can meet then. Also, the ECC meeting is from 4:30pm-6:00pm on Wednesday, October 21st. I've got you on the agenda to give an update on Allied. The meeting is in the City Hall Community Room (2nd Floor).

Folks,

I should get into Kalamazoo by mid-day on Wednesday. At this point in time, I have nothing booked on Wednesday until the ECC meeting at 4:30 pm (or is it 6 pm as per a Chris Whamoff email). On Thursday, I have the evening meeting and a tentative meeting with Sue and Mike in the afternoon (do we have a time and place for it?). Otherwise, I am open, so if you want me to meet with someone, let me know. If you are free for dinner or lunch one of those days, also let me know. If you know a place other than Burdicks where I can watch the games (I hope it goes beyond 4) and eat good food, please please let me know.

Thanks and I will see you all soon,
Michael
